The Prodigal's Mother, Charley Mackesy

Welcome to Shandon Presbyterian Church

Whether you are a first-time visitor or a long-time member . . .

Whether you are familiar with our traditions or still find it all a bit strange \ldots

Whether you grew up Presbyterian or Baptist or Jewish or agnostic . . .

Whether you are in search of comfort or wanting to be challenged . . .

Whatever reason brought you to worship today, you are welcome here. We take seriously Jesus' instructions to love God, love one another, and love our neighbors. We don't all look alike, act alike, or think alike. We don't all read the Bible the same way. We bring different questons and carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we worship together as one unified community.

Our worship style is traditional and true to our Reformed heritage. At the same time, we seek to bring our faith into conversation with the world around us and the events of our lives. We sing with joy and we pray with honesty.

Hospitality is important and friendship is holy. That's why we gather for fellowship, cookies, and lemonade outside after worship. Please join us. We think you'll find us to be a warm, approachable group of people trying our best to live like Jesus teaches. If you're looking for a perfect church, we aren't it. We're real people, and we do the very best we can, but we don't always get it right. We understand how much we all need grace in our lives. And we believe that God's love, which never gives up and never lets go, is for everyone. Including you.

There is a place for you here. Welcome home.

Rev. Jenny McDevitt Senior Pastor

Welcoming Children

Children are always welcome in worship! Families are welcome to sit anywhere in the Sanctuary, though little ones are often more engaged when they are able to see everything going on. We understand that children come fully equipped with wiggles, giggles, questions and noises. Your child's presence among us is a gift. We include a time especially for children as part of each worship service. Child care is available in Room 107 for kindergarten-aged children and younger, if that is your preference. For more information about children's and family ministries, please contact Jackson Ringley at jringley@shandonpresbyterian.org.

Current Covid-19 Protocols

At Shandon Presbyterian Church, your health and safety is extremely important to us. So, too, is the health and safety of our community. Following CDC recommendations, masks are optional at Shandon Presbyterian Church. Food and drink are permitted indoors. Some activities will continue outside, especially before summer weather sets in. Anyone who wishes to remain masked is encouraged to do so. Thank you for recognizing that anyone who remains masked has any number of good reasons for doing so, and being respectful of that. Our paid staff are fully vaccinated. We encourage vaccination for all who are eligible.

Scripture Lesson

Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, 'This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.'

So Jesus told them this parable: 'There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, "Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me." So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and travelled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, "How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.' " So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son." But the father said to his slaves, "Quickly, bring out a robe —the best one — and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!" And they began to celebrate.

'Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, "Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound." Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, "Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!" Then the father said to him, "Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found." '

This is the Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God. Sermon Rev. Jenny McDevitt A Different Kind of Lent: Reconsidering Responding to the Word * Affirmation of Faith Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child, like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home, God is faithful still. And so we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. * Hymn 418 Softly and Tenderly Jesus Is Calling SOFTLY AND TENDERLY Prayers of the People The Lord's Prayer Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. Offering You may also give by texting SHANDONPC to 73256 or visiting our website, shandonpresbyterian.org. Worship Notes

LEADING WORSHIP TODAY are Matthew McCall, Belle Maynard (acolyte), Rev. Jenny McDevitt, Rev. John Cook, Jackson Ringley, and the Chancel Choir under the direction of Ashlee Poole.

TODAY'S LITURGY — The Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were written by Rev. Jenny McDevitt.

TODAY'S COVER IMAGE — This image, inspired by the familiar story of the prodigal son, shows us a portion of the story rarely considered: the reunion of the son with his mother. She is not mentioned in Scripture. Most artistic depictions of the text include the son, both sons, the father, hogs, a party... but rarely the mother. This is an especially appropriate cover image this week as we use this story to reconsider some of the things we think we know so well.

AFTER WORSHIP TODAY — Join us outside for cookies, coffee and other refreshments. A deacon will be present in the Sower's Chapel (near the baptismal font) to receive prayer concerns or pastoral updates.

Announcements

EASTER EGG HUNT: APRIL 3 — Gather on the front lawn after the worship service on Sunday, April 3, for fun and light refreshments for kids and kids-at-heart.

MORE JUSTICE NEHEMIAH ACTION — Shandon will join with 34 other congregations to ask local elected officials to move forward with a program to reduce gun violence and an initiative to provide more affordable housing in our community at the Nehemiah Action Assembly at 6:30 p.m. Monday, April 4, at the Columbia Convention Center. Transportation by Shandon bus is available. To reserve a seat on the bus, contact Brittany Young, byoung@shandonpresbyterian.org. To register for the event, go to bit.ly/nehemiahaction2022.

TO EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON — This exhibit in Shandon's Atrium Gallery includes multidimensional works that explore life, death and grief through the passage of time by artist and Shandon member Judy Hubbard. Judy's works are complemented by images curated by Church Administrator Robert Walker reflecting on the stages of grief. The exhibit is open through April 14.

EASTER LILIES FOR THE SANCTUARY — You may remember or honor a loved one by sponsoring an Easter lily for the Sanctuary. Order deadline is April 8. Go to bit.ly/spclilies2022 to order online. To print an order form to return to the church office, go to bit.ly/liliesprint2022. Cost is $16 each; payment information is included with the order forms. You may pick up your lilies after the 11 a.m. Easter worship service.

SHANDON ON WEDNESDAYS — Join us on April 6 for our monthly intergenerational gathering for dinner, fellowship, and educational opportunities for all ages. The adult program for April is "Security and Misinformation in the Digital Age" with Byron Duell, Shandon member and video engineering manager for Spectrum Reach. The program will focus on security with social media and daily computer usage along with technology questions. Look for a reservation link in your email.

CHILDREN'S CHOIRS IN WORSHIP — Both the Arise and Shine choirs will participate in worship services on April 10. All children are welcome and encouraged to gather at the piano in the Sanctuary at 9:45 a.m. to sing. Join us for rehearsals each Wednesday: Arise Choir (ages 4 through first grade), 6-6:30 p.m. Wednesdays in Room 224; Shine Choir (second through fifth grades), 6:30-7 p.m. Wednesdays in Room 224. Shandon's Youth Choir (sixth through 12th grades) rehearses Sunday afternoons during regularly scheduled youth group activities. Contact Matt McCall, mmccall@shandonpresbyterian.org, for more information.

FILM SCREENING — The Peacemaking Committee has rescheduled the screening of Trigger: The Ripple Effect of Gun Violence for 7 p.m. Monday, April 25, at The Nickelodeon Theatre. The community is invited to attend the film and panel discussion facilitated by Rev. Jenny McDevitt. Admission is free, but reservations are required. Go to bit.ly/triggertickets, or call the church office at 803-771-4408. More information: bit.ly/trigginfo.

MONTREAT YOUTH CONFERENCES — Shandon's rising sixth graders through 2022 high school graduates are invited to enjoy a week of worship, recreation and fun with youth from all over the country at Montreat summer conferences. Senior highs will attend June 12-18 and middle schoolers will attend July 20-24. Go to bit.ly/ spcyouthmontreat2022 for more information and registration links.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY — Shandon's college-bound and college students are eligible for scholarships to help support their educational goals. Please complete the application no later than April 1. You can find the application at bit.ly/spcscholarship2022. Please return the completed application to Brittany Young in the front office or via email at byoung@shandonpresbyterian.org.

UKRAINE RELIEF — Presbyterian Disaster Assistance is providing financial support to Ukraine's neighboring countries who are receiving floods of refugees. To contribute to that effort, please indicate "PDA - UKRAINE" on your check or envelope. You may also contribute online through Realm at bit.ly/pdaukraine.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF LENT

Everything feels different this year.

Maybe Lent should be different, too.

What if we paved our Lenten road with gentleness and grace?

What sort of resurrection might we be ready to receive if we spend this season making space to breathe?
