

A gracious Sabbath stood here while they stood
Who gave our rest a haven.
Now fallen, they are given
To labor and distress.
These time we know much evil, little good
To steady us in faith
And comfort when our losses press
Hard on us, and we choose,
In panic or despair or both,
To keep what we will lose.

For we are fallen like the trees, our peace Broken, and so we must Love where we cannot trust,
Trust where we cannot know,
And must await the wayward-coming grace
That joins living and dead,
Taking us where we would not go —
Into the boundless dark.
When what was made has been unmade
The Maker comes to his work.

Tenebrae is a Latin word meaning "shadows" or "darkness."

Prelude

O Sacred Head Now Wounded

ARR. BARBARA HARBACH

* Call to Worship

Behold the cross on which was hung the salvation of the world.

We see the cross, but want to turn away,
for on the cross we see the sin of the world.

Behold the cross on which was hung the salvation of the world.

We see the cross, but want to turn away,
for on the cross was hung the one who did not deserve this death.

Behold the cross on which was hung the salvation of the world.

We see the cross, but want to turn away,
for there is a love so strong it shames us.

We turn away, but want to see the cross,
for there is a love so strong it heals us.

* Hymn 274

You, Lord, Are Both Lamb and Shepherd

PICARDY

Evening Prayer

Lord Jesus, born of woman as is every person and yet born of God's power as was no other person,

how did we come to this night?

How is it, O God, that you who bind up the broken and comfort the bruised, can be broken and bruised?

How did we come to this night?

Lord Jesus, teacher of fishermen and tax collectors, redeemer of prostitutes and Pharisees, lover of every soul;

how did we come to this night?

How is it, O God, that you remain so faithful to your arrogant creation when we are so afraid and selfish

we take the one you give in grace and seek his death?

Lord Jesus, God's holy love made flesh to dwell among us

now hated, derided and crucified;

we know how we have come to this night;

the mystery we seek to know is this:

how did you come to this night?

Let your redemption claim us once again.

In the name of him who was crucified for all, we pray.

Amen.
